

Statement on Independence of candidates for the Supervisory Board

In the run-up to its election proposals, the Supervisory Board informed itself in detail about the personal and business circumstances of the candidates. The candidates were each assessed as independent within the meaning of the German Corporate Governance Code.

