The dividend entitlements that arose as a result of the adoption of the resolution on appropriation of net income by the shareholders' meeting on May 16, 2013 of EUR 0.70 per no-par value share (the "Dividend Entitlements") shall be paid out at the election of the shareholders in cash or, if New Shares are chosen, as a non-cash contribution for the Capital Increase. The Dividend Entitlements are certified in the form of bearer global profit share certificates (the "Bearer Global Profit Share Certificates"), which are kept in custody by Clearstream Banking AG, Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn, Germany ("Clearstream"). After determining the total number of New Shares to be issued, the Board of Management expects, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, to determine the precise amount of the Capital Increase as well as the number of New Shares in a specific resolution on June 11, 2013. The New Shares will be entitled to participate in dividends as of January 1, 2013.

The New Shares will be offered to the shareholders in accordance with their respective dividend entitlement as certified in the Bearer Global Profit Share Certificate at a still-to-be-determined subscription price and in a still-to-be-determined subscription ratio ("Subscription Offer"). Each existing share will carry one subscription right and one dividend entitlement of EUR 0.70. Each shareholder can only exercise its subscription right in the manner that it instructs and authorizes Citigroup Global Markets Limited as a third-party trustee to subscribe for the New Shares which such shareholder would like to receive based on its subscription right, in the name of Citigroup Global Markets Limited, but for such shareholder's own account, to assign the respective Dividend Entitlements and to transfer its co-ownership participations in the respective Bearer Global Profit Share Certificates to Citigroup Global Markets Limited. Such instruction and authorization must be made during the subscription period from May 17, 2013 to June 3, 2013 (both inclusive) via its depository bank during normal banking hours ("Subscription Period") using the form provided by the depository bank for this purpose (the "Declaration of Subscription and Transfer"). Shareholders who make use of their subscription rights must assign the Dividend Entitlement that they wish to use to subscribe to the New Shares to Citigroup Global Markets Limited within the Subscription Period by submitting their Declaration of Subscription and Transfer on time and transferring their co-ownership participations in the relevant Bearer Global Profit Share Certificates to Citigroup Global Markets Limited free of third-party rights. The exercise of the subscription rights shall take effect upon the book entry transfer in due course of the relevant Dividend Entitlements from ISIN DE000A1TNRX5 / WKN A1T NRX to ISIN DE000A1TNR3 / WKN A1T NRY.

Our shareholders have the option to exercise their subscription rights for the New Shares in the period from May 17, 2013 to June 3, 2013 (both inclusive)

during normal banking hours via their depository bank via the subscription agent named below, using the Declaration of Subscription and Transfer provided by the depository bank and to assign the Dividend Entitlements that are to be contributed as non-cash contributions to Citigroup Global Markets Limited as well as transferring their co-ownership participations in the relevant Global Profit Share Certificates to Citigroup Global Markets Limited. Subscription agent and settlement agent

The subscription agent is Citigroup Global Markets Limited, London.

The paying agent is Citigroup Global Markets Limited, acting through Citibank N.A., London.

Important note:

The Company asks its shareholders to note that the subscription price per New Share and the subscription ratio will only be published during the Subscription Period, presumably on Friday, May 31, 2013 at 3 p.m. CEST. Holders of subscription rights who do not exercise them, or not do not exercise them in full, will receive for each retained no-par value share for which the subscription right was not exercised, the cash dividend of EUR 0.70 per share, which is expected to be paid on June 12, 2013 through the depository banks.

Subscription price

The subscription price is expected to be published in the German Federal Gazette (Bundesanzeiger) and on the Deutsche Telekom website (www.telekom.com/agm) on Friday, May 31, 2013 at 3 p.m. CEST, i.e., three days before the end of the Subscription Period.

The subscription price corresponds to the result in EUR of dividing the reference price by EUR 0.70, less 2.0% of this result, then rounded down to one decimal place and multiplied by EUR 0.70 (the “Subscription Price”). The reference price is the volume-weighted average price of Deutsche Telekom AG shares in EUR in the XETRA trading system on the Frankfurt stock exchange on Thursday May 30, 2013 (“Reference Price”).

Subscription ratio

The subscription ratio is also expected to be published together with the Subscription Price, in the German Federal Gazette and on the Deutsche Telekom website (www.telekom.com/agm) on Friday, May 31, 2013 at 3 p.m. CEST, i.e., three days before the end of the Subscription Period.

The subscription ratio corresponds to the relationship between the result of dividing the Reference Price by EUR 0.70, less 2.0% of this result and rounded to one decimal place and one New Share (the “Subscription Ratio”).

The number of Dividend Entitlements that must be transferred and contributed to purchase one New Share shall equal the Subscription Price divided by EUR 0.70.

A shareholder's "residual balance" that is not sufficient to cover subscription to one full New Share, is compensated by making a dividend payment in cash. This means that shareholders for whom the number of Dividend Entitlements assigned and transferred for the purpose of the non-cash contribution is not sufficient to receive a full New Share, will receive their dividend to that extent in cash.

Subscription rights trading

There are no plans for the Company or Citigroup Global Markets Limited to have the subscription rights traded and neither the Company nor Citigroup Global Markets Limited will organize such trading. Nor is it intended for the subscription rights to be quoted on a stock exchange. Therefore, it is not possible for subscription rights to be purchased or sold on a stock exchange in the regulated market. Nor will the Company or Citigroup Global Markets Limited arrange for any such purchases or sales. However, the subscription rights to which a shareholder is entitled can be freely transferred together with the Dividend Entitlements to which they are inextricably linked.

From the start of the Subscription Period, i.e., from May 17, 2013, the Company's existing shares will be listed "ex rights" and "ex dividend".

Form and certification of the New Shares

In accordance with the Company's currently applicable articles of incorporation, the New Shares will be issued as no-par value registered shares. The New Shares will be represented by one or more global certificates, each with a Bearer Global Profit Share Certificate, to be held by Clearstream in collective custody.

The right of shareholders to certification of their shares and dividends is excluded in § 5 (8) of the Articles of Incorporation unless certification is necessary according to the rules of a stock exchange on which the shares are listed.

Delivery of the New Shares purchased on the basis of the Subscription Offer and payment of the residual amounts

The New Shares for which subscription rights were exercised in accordance with the Subscription Offer are expected to be delivered to the shareholders via collective safe custody credit (Girosammelgutschrift) on June 18, 2013.

The residual amounts are expected to be paid together with the cash payment for Dividend Entitlements for which dividends were not chosen in the form of shares through the depository banks on June 12, 2013.

Commission for depository banks

For the subscription to New Shares, the depository banks may charge a brokerage commission. Please consult your depository bank in advance for details. Citigroup Global Markets Limited will not charge exercising shareholders any additional commission for processing their subscription rights.

Admission to the stock exchange and listing of the New Shares

Admission of the New Shares to the regulated markets for trading on the Frankfurt am Main, Berlin, Düsseldorf, Hamburg, Hanover, Munich and Stuttgart stock exchanges as well as to the regulated market subsection with additional post-admission obligations (Prime Standard) on the Frankfurt stock exchange is expected to be applied for on May 17, 2013. The decision on admission is expected for June 13, 2013, subject to the registration of the execution of the Capital Increase with the commercial register. The New Shares are expected to be included in the existing quotation of the Company's shares on June 18, 2013.

Other important information

In accordance with § 4 (1) No. 4 of the German Securities Prospectus Act ("WpPG") and § 4 (2) No. 5 WpPG, no securities prospectus will be prepared for the execution of the Subscription Offer and the admission of the New Shares, but only a single document for information purposes in accordance with § 4 (1) No. 4 WpPG and § 4 (2) No. 5 WpPG ("prospectus-exempting document"). Before making a decision on whether to exercise their subscription right, interested shareholders should read carefully the prospectus-exempting document (available at www.telekom.com/agm) and find out about the Company in detail. It is also recommended, also with regard to risks, that they visit the Company's website (www.telekom.com/ir) and read the available financial reports including the Company's financial statements for 2012 financial year, the most recent interim report on the first quarter of 2013 from May 8, 2013, and the other information on the Company's website, and take them into account when making a decision.

The obligations of Citigroup Global Markets Limited arising under the Transaction Agreement to conclude a contribution agreement and to subscribe for the New Shares and thus ultimately to execute this Subscription Offer are subject to a series of conditions precedent. These conditions include in particular that all representations and warranties of the Company in the Transaction Agreement are accurate and complete and the Company has fulfilled all its obligations under the Transaction Agreement to be fulfilled prior to the conclusion of the contribution agreement and subscription to the New Shares.

If Citigroup Global Markets Limited finds before the registration of the execution of the subscription right capital increase in the commercial register that one of the conditions has not been fulfilled in time, it can terminate the Transaction Agreement. Under certain conditions the Company is entitled to terminate the Transaction Agreement as well. In the event that the Transaction Agreement is terminated before the entry of the execution of the Capital Increase in the commercial register, the subscription right of the shareholders shall be canceled. In such circumstances, shareholders will receive their dividends of EUR 0.70 in cash. Once the execution of the Capital Increase has been entered in the commercial register, there is no longer any such right of termination and the shareholders who have exercised their subscription right in accordance with the above requirements will receive the New Shares at the Subscription Price.

Sales restrictions

The New Shares will only be offered to the public in the Federal Republic of Germany. Neither the subscription rights nor the New Shares are, or will be, registered in accordance with the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 as amended ("Securities Act"), or with the securities regulators of individual states or other territories of the United States of America. At no time may the subscription rights and New Shares be offered, sold, exercised, pledged, transferred or delivered, either directly or indirectly, to the or within the United States of America, unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act applies or unless such a transaction is covered by them and therefore does not constitute a breach of applicable securities legislation in the individual states of the United States of America.

Availability of the prospectus-exempting document

The Subscription Offer is made on the basis of the prospectus-exempting document, which states that there is no obligation to publish a prospectus for the public offering, § 4 (1) no. 4 WpPG, and admission for trading, § 4 (2) no. 5 WpPG, of dividends paid out to shareholders in the form of shares "provided that a document is made available which contains information on the quantity and type of shares and which describes the reasons for and details of the offer." The document is published at www.telekom.com/agm.
